

Alligator Camouflage

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adult American Alligators are apex predators that mainly stay in rivers and lakes. When they are young, alligators must rely on camouflage and hiding to protect themselves from predators. Young alligators are most commonly found on land in near-shore wooded areas and therefore have more stripping to their coloration.

Below, color in the two outlines of an American alligator to show the different coloration and camouflage of young and adult alligators.

WAVE
FOUNDATION
WONDER. KNOWLEDGE. ACTION.

