

Plant Growth

Name: ANSWER KEY

Date: _____

Plants are a critical part of life on Earth because they produce oxygen for animals to breathe and are the primary source of food.

Where do plants get their energy from? Sunlight

What do they use this energy for? To make sugars and grow

What is the name for their process of making energy? Photosynthesis

Below, label the major parts of a plant that help it to grow and survive.

