

Plant Growth

Name: _____

Date: _____

Plants are a critical part of life on Earth because they produce oxygen for animals to breathe and are the primary source of food.

Where do plants get their energy from? _____

What do they use this energy for? _____

What is the name for their process of making energy? _____

Below, label the major parts of a plant that help it to grow and survive.

